(Approved by Dental Council of India, New Delhi & Affiliated to The Tamilnadu Dr. M.G.R Medical University, Chennai - 32.)

INSTITUTIONAL ETHICAL COMMITTEE

Ethics is a branch of philosophy that "involves systematizing, defending, and recommending concepts of right and wrong." Research ethics are relevant to any field of study that conducts experiments on humans or animals, such as the social sciences and medicine. The committee analyses the various research proposals, and their ethical issues and then approves for the further proceeding of the research. Annually four meetings will be conducted.
