IQAC MECHANISM

Functions of the IQAC of PDCH include, introducing a quality culture within the institution, developing a system for improving the academic and administrative functioning, organising workshops, seminars and the like, and documentation of the same. Further it collects feedback from all the stake holders to on quality-related institutional processes to improve further.

IQAC of PDCH ensures that it collects feedback from all the stake holders namely students, faculty members, parents, patients and alumni with regards to teaching, learning, infrastructure, other facilities. These feedbacks are analysed and a report is generated. These reports are shared with the respective committees for appropriate action and redressal. The committees in their meetings discuss the issues in depth and forwarded to the IQAC or PDCH Governing council.

IQAC scrutinises it further in its meetings and devises an action plan to be implemented. It may also present the issues to planning and monitoring committee and finance committee if they involve funds and infrastructure augmentation. Finally it is discussed in the PDCH governing council, which may approve or reject based on the merit.

Approved report will be sent back to IQAC, which will forward to the respective committees for the necessary action. The committee in-charge will formulate a plan for implementation of the same, after which a feedback is collected from the stakeholders whether the issue has
