INDUCTION DAY AND WHITE COAT CEREMONY

White coat ceremony is a ritual followed to change a student into a healthcare professional. During the ceremony each student wear the white-coat and recite the oath of Hippocrates. The white coat ceremony in Dental College signifies the changing of roles and responsibilities of Dental students. The signification of the white coat ceremony is that of the student's change in roles and the promise to uphold their profession. The white coat ceremony is a tradition that is held annually.

16th Batch of Priyadarshini Dental College and Hospital BDS first year INDUCTION DAY and WHITE COAT CEREMONY was held on 6th January 2023. Our beloved Chairman Thiru VG Raajendran and our MD madam Tmt Indira Raajendran graced the occasion with their presence. Dr. R. Veerakumar Vice Principal gave Welcome address, Dr. B Sivapathasundharam, Principal introduced the Professors and HODs to the newly joined students. Chairman and MD distributed the white coat to the students and addressed the gathering.

Dr. Abby Abraham, Professor and Head, Department of Prosthodontics, read the physician's pledge and the students repeated the same. Dr. C. Vijayadhith Professor and Head, Department of Orthodontics, explained the code of conduct to be followed in PDCH. Dr. T. Sridhar., Professor and Head Professor and Head, Department of Oral Medicine and Radiology delivered the vote of thanks. The program was well coordinated by Dr. I. Paavai Professor and Head, Department of periodontics and the reception committee was well managed by Dr. T. Abirami and Dr. R. Ganesh.
