A pivotal moment of the program featured Dr. Sivapathasundharam, the esteemed Principal of PDCH, who offered a comprehensive understanding of the academic rules and regulations mandated by Tamil Nadu Dr. MGR Medical University.

During his enlightening session, He not only elucidated the critical significance of maintaining attendance percentages and securing internal assessment marks but also underscored the imperative need to fulfill exam quotas. Furthermore, he emphasized the university's stringent stance on attendance requirements, shedding light on the potential consequences for non-compliance. In an insightful addition, Dr. Sivapathasundharam placed a particular emphasis on the completion of quotas by interns during their internship period, elucidating the vital role this plays in their academic journey and professional development.

Dr. T. P. Pragathi, Tutor, Department of Prosthodontics, expressed gratitude during the vote of thanks, acknowledging the active participation of all attendees. The program concluded on a harmonious note with the resonant strains of the National Anthem.
